conclusion of the story of the murder of Frederick Beutler, the aged aniser, in Sait Lake Feb. 25, 1837. Muncy was on the stand nearly all day, and was the only witness examined in the preliminary hearing of Rice. At the conclusion of the testimony, City Judge Diehl held Rice to the district court to answer the charge of murder. The hearing of Abe Hunter, who is accused also of taking a hand in the killing of Beutler, will begin before Judge Diehl, 10 octoock this morning.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES.

It Is Said the New Ones Will Have to Be Considered Again.

The revised ordinances, which are still in the hands of the printer, will probaply be revised again. It is con-tended by some of the members of the as to be practically as valueless as was stated by Councilman Fernstron last evening that it is an absolute necessity that the ordinances be revised again. When asked if they would be gone over the same as were the old ones, he said:

That is a matter which we will have to decide later. It has been suggested that two or three attorneys be employed by the city for that special purpose. Let them get together, revise the ordinances, and then report to the council. The recommendation has also been made that we employ one attorney and after he has gone over the ney, and after he has gone over the ordinances, let him draft the amend-ments, and the council pass them as he
